On average, nearly 20 people per minute are physically abused by an intimate partner in the United States. During one year, this equates to more than 10 million women and men. October is Domestic Violence Awareness month and the beauty industry for years has been finding ways to support further awareness to possible victims through its Cut it Out Program. Join me and my guest Brigid Cox a survivor of domestic abuse and soon to be author of "Time to Talk About It". Brigid will share her harrowing story and how this is still an epidemic for both men and women globally but more importantly ho
