The Power of Natural Healing Archives Available

October 24th 2016: Luke Yankee, playwright, author, director, Gerson advocate

Luke Yankee is a prominent playwright, director and author who was so impressed by his foray into natural healing that he started to do deeper research. This turned up Dr. Gerson's name and story, and inspired Yankee to write a play, and eventually a screenplay about Dr. Gerson's struggles with the allopathic, for-profit medical system, called 'The Man Who Killed the Cure.' We'll talk with Luke about his journey, health, work and life.
