We go around all the time telling each other and ourselves that we should "be" more loving. Be more kind. Be more respectful. But how do we make these shoulds into reality. The truth is that anytime we put the word "should" in front of the word "love," it ceases to be love and becomes instead a duty, an ought to, a have to. We think that we should be more loving, and we chastise ourselves when we are not. But we don't understand the nature of love. This show is going to facilitate a greater understanding of the nature of love, and help us understand the very important transformative pro
