December 27th 2016: Encore: Good Government...and God's Will

When it's time to choose a leader, no matter where or at what level, the question often arises: who is God's choice? When we look at a slate of candidates, it's not always easy to tell which of them embodies the God qualities we'd like to see in a leader. Making things even more complicated, we are told that we get the leader we deserve. So no matter what qualities we may see in a candidate, if we haven't stood up for our principles and worked by word or example to promote the right choice, we are basically leaving it to others to decide who will lead, something we simply can't afford to do
