March 22nd 2017: Making the Sale with Love

Tune in to learn how to make the sale with love. We will talk about various excuses potential clients come up with and how to overcome those so you can make the sale and help the client. Is it good to ask for a decision on the spot? How to ask for money once someone says they want your service. In this episode we will conclude the selling discussion that we started in the pricing your services and packages. Join Irina for the Entrepreneur Enlightenment show to discover how to thrive in business while following your purpose!
