Organizations are assemblies of individuals working distinctively and collaboratively for a shared purpose. Many organizations have found increased success when stated values of the collective are in alignment with actions. Faith communities are some of the most ancient organization with varieties of expressed purposes and values. And like for profit business organizations, faith based organizations work to motivate and sustain their work from deep values based alignment. How do we as organizations and individuals explore a values based way of being? What is made possible when our values are i
