June 30th 2017: Leading and Motivating Teams in Sport and Business

My guest is someone who has led in a lot of different circumstances – from the Navy, to sports teams, to university faculty and students and to business. What does it take to win a team over to you as the leader, particularly when they know more than you do? How does one build a team and keep everyone motivated? How can leaders manage strong personalities on the team? What are the lessons learned from observing a master coach?
