Walker Hancock

Walker Hancock the head man at Claiborne, not only understands and appreciates the Claiborne tradition, but he is the right age to lead the iconic breeding and racing operation into a future that is filled with new ideas, new concepts and new challenges. Walker continues a family tradition and passion for "Doing the usual unusually well." World-renowned Kentucky Thoroughbred farm Claiborne has origins in Virginia. The move to Kentucky came with the next generation when Capt. Hancock's son Arthur B. Hancock established a second farm on his wife's property. Walker Hancock, 27, became the fourth generation to assume control of the historic farm, taking over in 2014 as Claiborne's president f

Byron King

Byron King, a native of Louisville, Ky., is the Kentucky handicapper and columnist for Daily Racing Form. A graduate of the University of Arizona Racetrack Industry Program, he initially worked as the paddock host and morning-line odds maker for Sam Houston Race Park before joining DRF in 1995. Since that time, he has covered racing from across the country for the Form, with his primary focus now being on the Kentucky circuit, and Churchill Downs in particular. In addition to his handicapping and reporting duties for the Form, he is a horse owner and breeder, and has helped identify numerous eventual stakes winners for private purchase for clients.
