ALERT: This session is not for the faint of heart. Please give careful consideration before listening to this program. This show is meant to serve as insight and education for the professional community that may be working with or exposed to child sex offenders. If you are uncomfortable discussing child sexual violation, we suggest that you skip this session. Working with youth who are sex offenders is one of the most challenging endeavors a therapist can undertake. Alana Hendrix is a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist with thousands of hours of experience and education in issues r
