Good Morning New York, Real Estate with Vince Rocco
Tuesday at 6 AM Pacific
September 12th 2017: What is the role of a NYC Real Estate Agent

What does a real estate agent do? Where to start. Trying to explain to the public how real estate agents spend their time is akin to explaining what a doctor or lawyer does all day. There is a lot more that goes into treating patients or handling legal matters and the same goes for helping people buy, sell or rent property. Also, space is a precious commodity in New York City, particularly for the parents of young children, and as families grow it can be a major hurdle to find (and afford) the room to accommodate them
