September 20th 2017: What's So Wrong with Thinking Inside the Box?

Everyone wants to think, "outside the box." What's wrong with thinking inside-the-box thinking, and why do boxes get such a bad wrap? There's nothing wrong with thinking inside the box... as a matter of fact, if we don't take a little time understanding just what our company's boxes look like, we have no way to successfully measure just how big we're growing them, or if we're being choked by them. Understanding how to successfully and effectively navigate complex organizations, problems, systems, internal organizations and client Org structures requires more appreciation and understand of them
