October 10th 2017: Encore: Unlocking Your Voice: Ending the Silence of Abuse

Many people who experienced childhood sexual abuse were silenced in shame and threatened if they spoke up. The terror and shock hid their true voice, blocking their ability to speak up for themselves. If this happened to you, you may feel like your voice is locked inside your body; like you're living in an invisible cage without the key. On today's show we'll explore the impact of living with your voice locked up inside of you, and how to unlock your voice. We'll provide tools, insights, and support to help you view your abuse in a whole new way. Our special guest, Blossom Benedict
