Gary Falter

A Columbus, Ohio native, Gary Falter joined The Jockey Club Information Systems, Inc. in February 2000. He served as Vice President of Development and Operations until 2012. During that time frame he was responsible for the development of commercial products for horsemen including the equine Portfolio service, the Horse Farm Health-book software for tablets and more recently the iPad Sale Catalog App. Since 2012, Gary has been leading Thoroughbred OwnerView, a nationwide industry initiative to encourage Thoroughbred ownership. Gary has also owned and bred Thoroughbreds for 32 years and maintains a small breeding operation at his Red Fox Farm in Versailles, Ky. In 2009, Gary and h
