October 31st 2017: Lewis Black on Government, Socialism and Laughter

Lewis Black, the comedian who single handedly raised ranting to a high art, shares his views on the US government's inability to get things done, why he is a self-proclaimed socialist and how vital laughter is during these times. When we are plagued with news stories of governmental stand offs every day, it is vital to have an effective way to discharge our anger, frustration and tension. Sometimes, good old fashion laughter is just the medicine we need.
