November 02nd 2017:Fears and Futures

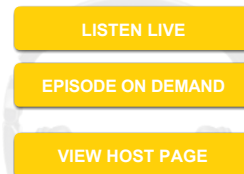

Dr. Connie reflects on the special time of year that falls after Halloween and delivers us to All Souls Day, on November 2nd. Halloween often conjures up feelings of fear, so Dr. Connie explores the common fears that impact our lives and how we can overcome them. One of the most common fears is of the future---what to expect? Her special guest in studio is someone who has the gift of "seeing" futures, Annette Bricca, who has read for thousands of people over her 35 years as a psychic. Listen in as Dr. Connie interviews Annette about her work as a psychic and how we can conquer our fear of

Featured Guest

Annette Bricca

As a child, Annette was able to see and talk to spirits on the other side. She learned the art of "trance reading" from her grandmother. In this state, Annette is able to tap into universal consciousness. For 35 years, Annette has been giving readings to thousands of people. Her clients include celebrities, musicians, athletes, politicians, world leaders, billionaires, and the neighbor next door. Annette has chosen to use her gift to empower countless individuals. She also provides pro bono assistance for local police/FBI in missing children cases. To contact Annette to arrange a personal reading, please email her at arspiritis@aol.com or call her office at (201) 857-0240
