November 9th 2017: Saving Children From Sex Slave Traffickers While Saving Elephants

Randy McKinney is the founder of African Wildlife Initiative. In the Central African Republic, terrorist groups are targeting children, kidnapping them for use in the sex trade and as child soldiers. These same groups are also poaching elephants to finance their exploits. AWI is an Alaska-based organization working to protect and rescue children and elephants by training and supporting local people in CAR to defend their communities. Randy founded AWI and leads efforts on the ground in CAR. Because of the dangerous political and social environment in CAR, it's impossible for foreigners to e
