November 14th 2017: How Much Longer Can the Petrodollar Survive?

Jerry Robinson and Michael Oliver return. New guest Nav Dhaliwal joins us. In 1971 Nixon detached gold from the U.S. dollar and the international monetary system. To maintain demand for a now intrinsically worthless dollar, the mighty U.S. military was used to demand all international oil sales be paid for in dollars. With the ability to print trillions of dollars, not only did Americans live beyond their means but funded the greatest military incursion/regime change, empire building the world had ever known. But now adversarial nations like China, Russia and Iran are threatening the petrodol

J. Michael Oliver

J. Michael Oliver entered the financial services industry in 1975 on the Futures side, joining E.F. Hutton's International Commodity Division, NYC. He studied under David Johnson, head of Hutton's Commodity Division and Chairman of the COMEX. In the 1980's Oliver began to develop his own momentum-based method of technical analysis. In 1987 Oliver, along with his futures client accounts (Oliver had trading POA) technically anticipated and captured the Crash. Oliver began to realize that his emergent momentum-structural-based tools should be further developed into a full analytic methodology. In 1992 he was asked by the Financial VP and head of Wachovia Bank's Trust Department to provi
