Dr. Carole's Couch Tuesday at 1 PM Pacific

November 14th 2017: When You Can't See the Light at the End of the Tunnel

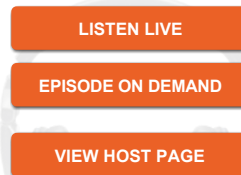

Today's guest, Khaldoun Sweis, an Associate Professor of Philosophy, shares his personal story of the greatest suffering he has ever known - first, being a teen on the brink of suicide, and years later, his son's death. His riveting story goes on to explain how these events set him on his mission in life: helping people to find hope in suffering through discovering evidence of their faith - like he did. Regardless of your religious beliefs - you will be moved by Sweis' story. Do you call on your God or a Higher Power like a big bellhop in the sky - there to grant your wishes? Or do you have fa
