Neary Heng

Back when I was a bony child labor working in the Killing Fields, witnessed horrific crimes and then had to live in refugee camps starting from five years old to late teens, all freedoms were ripped off from me. In a sense, I was a prisoner in the jungle. Arriving in America hopeful and spoke no English, I'm proud to stand firm in myself a college graduated, best seller author and create platforms to share inspiring messages that touch many people in 56 countries and counting. What does this mean for you? Simple: If this introvert jungle girl can do it, you can too!
