When it comes to the migration of people around the globe, we are living in historical times. Europe is seeing a major influx of displaced persons arriving from foreign cultures. The U.S. is grappling with "the wall" and how to deal with the entry of people from Latin America, who are seeking to escape violence, crime and poverty. This week legislators voted to make California a "Sanctuary State" ignoring immigration laws. Lost in the dialogue is the reality of what happens to a vulnerable undocumented adult or child alien with few resources, who has paid a cartel member (coyote) to cross
