January 23rd 2018: Encore: Charles Manson: 'Killer' Groom

Nice guys can't get dates, but serial killer Charles Manson has women dying to marry him. Even his mother didn't love him, but Afton Elaine Burton, aka "Star", tells us she's his bride-to-be. She also claims he's innocent. Is she truly in love or does she have ulterior motives - like fame and fortune? Manson, a sociopath, is not capable of love, or has he mellowed in his twilight years? Here to answer these questions and more is Marlin Marynick, author of Charles Manson Now, and mental health professional, who got to know Manson up close and personal.

Marlin Marynick

Marlin Marynick's journey to writing a biography of Charles Manson began at eight years old, when he discovered a beat up copy of Helter Skelter. The same curiosity about the human mind that led him to become a mental health professional, led him to meet Manson. His book, Charles Manson Now, has gotten rave reviews.
