Leading Conversations Friday at 10 AM Pacific

February 02nd 2018:Encore: Living Awareness: Patterns of Connection

Cheryl Esposito welcomes Peter Wrycza, founder of the Nirarta Centre for Living Awareness in Bali. Peter says: "In 1995 I stood in a grove of clove trees overlooking a river in a serene valley between the sea and the mountains and realized that this was my moment of choice. I could stick with my familiar work and territory in Europe. Or I could take the risk of buying land in a far-off place, and create a centre for people to connect with the core of their life." Balinese philosophy emphasizes harmony between one's own 'small world' and the wider world around us. Perfect for the transformation
