February 16th 2018: Engaging your Employees with David Long

Ask yourself how many potential star employees walk away from your business after just 3 months? How many of your employees are unmotivated when they come to work? How does that affect the service your customers receive? I will be talking to friend of the Business Elevation show David Long Founder/CEO of MyEmployees, a firm that operates in the Top 1% Worldwide in the Employee Engagement and Recognition industry about how he recommends you build engagement. For 30 years his company have helped managers build stronger, more engaging relationships with their team members, while linking rewards a

David Long

He is Founder/CEO of MyEmployees, a 25 year-old firm in the Top 1% Worldwide in the Employee Engagement and Recognition industry. His firm specializes in helping managers build stronger, more engaging relationships with their team members, while linking the rewards and recognition program to the desired goals of the company. David believes (and lives to his very core) what Zig Ziglar said was required to become truly successful in life. He said, "You can have ANYTHING you want in life IF you will FIRST help others get what THEY want!" As a result, David has touched untold lives through the years, including employees, clients, friends and family...and he'll show you exactly how he did it
