Featured Guest

Carolyn Sinclair

Carolyn Sinclair looks pretty normal when you see her but looks can be deceiving! She is a vibrating, joyful, expansive being who can change your world just by being in the same room. Carolyn is trained in several energy healing modalities and these days uses the many Access Consciousness® tools and techniques for herself, her family and friends and her clients and colleagues. At present, her home base is in Victoria, BC, Canada, but you might find her anywhere on the planet! An interesting bit of information about Carolyn is that for 35 years she made her life and living as a professional classical and opera singer. Talk about good vibrations!!
