Today, Tomorrow's Technologies Tuesday at 9 AM Pacific

May 07th 2018: Encore: Energy Now, I need more of it today!

With the advances of technology in every field of endeavor, we need to continue to produce more energy. Consumption rates are growing as more and more items on consuming the power, energy or electricity. How can we reverse the trend to eliminate rolling blackouts? What is a central grid, micro grid, the grid in general? Do I pay or do they pay me? We will discuss, what are the key tech drivers in the power industry? How will future power or energy impact the US? Do we need to change our consumption habits? Where does power come from and which one should I support?
