American Heroes Network Tuesday at 8 AM Pacific

July 24th 2018: Trilogy Integrated Resources Inc. Network Of Care

Trilogy Integrated Resources created a concept that uses the Internet as a "virtual information depot" to coordinate the various components of health and social services at the local level. This concept, which they named the Network of Care, provides critical information to everyone in the community simply, quickly and accurately.

Featured Guest

Bruce Bronzan

Bruce Bronzan has a long and exceptional career in the health and social-service arena. He was a county mental-health program director, and then served as a county supervisor for eight years as the lead for all health and human-services programs. He was a member of the California State Legislature for 10 years and chairman of the Health Committee and the Select Committee on Mental Health. Mr. Bronzan authored more than 100 major pieces of legislation, including the first "parity" bill in the nation, along with major efforts in aging and long-term care, health, mental health, disabilities and kids at risk. Mr. Bronzan was honored numerous times for his work in health and social services, in
