August 07th 2018: Daily Actions to Create WOWs for Your People

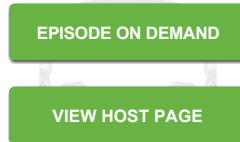

In this final episode of Leadership & Life, Sandy discusses the daily application of the WOWplace Rules and their importance in consistently creating WOW experiences for your people. She also offers even more insights into how you can involve and engage every member of your team, while offering cautions against "flattening" the organization so much that they are stripped of their power to make decisions and get things done. Sand also offers one final Leadership Self-Assessment tool called "Leadership Bingo!" that is fun and informative while providing daily reminders of the actions, be
