August 22nd 2018: Going With Grace

Alua Arthur was an attorney working with the most difficult problems we could imagine; abuse, poverty and assault. But she had done the work with energy and joy until she suddenly found herself depressed and uninspired, lacking any joy in the work. Knowing she would have to leave the work she had loved, it took some time to find her true life's calling: helping people prepare to die and then accompanying them and their families through death. Join us to hear the fascinating way she found passion for working with death and how she finds joy in the field. How can what most people avoid bring smi
