September 18th 2018: Cyber Terrorism Defense at Home and While Traveling

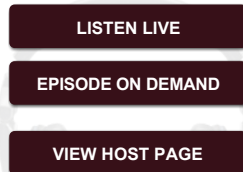

There are growing numbers of cyber-attacks being launched by terrorists throughout the world against critical infrastructure networks not only within governments, but also within the healthcare, financial, utilities, and transportation industries, just to name a few. The US Department Homeland Security said during a 2018 9/11 memorial event that, "The cyber threat has eclipsed the threat from physical terrorism." What is cyber terrorism, and how do cyber terrorists choose their victims? What factors lead to cyber terrorists targeting travelers? How can you keep cyber terrorists from your
