Todd Schrupp

Todd Schrupp, one of the longest tenured on-air talents on TVG, has been a TV Host for over 18 years. He has covered Group 1 horse races from all over the world, and as TVG has grown to become America's most watched horse racing network, his work has also been simulcast live on Fox Sports. He fell in love with the races after going to Del Mar with his father as a child. His career in racing started at Canterbury Downs (now Canterbury Park) as their in-house analyst. In 1991, he made his way to Miami to work as the in-house handicapper and backup track announcer at Calder Race Course. In 1999, he moved to Los Angeles for his breakthrough opportunity in television at TVG. Since then, he'
