November 16th 2018: 5G Wireless: Depopulation of the Planet

Research shows that wireless radiation such as from cell phone can result in brain cancer (Hardell), brain changed in the brain (hippocampus) of the offspring (Kaplan Suleyman). Wi fi disrupts inter-cellular communication, opens the blood brain barrier and the intestinal lining) leading to every disease imaginable. It affects human ovaries and sperm so some predict that human reproduction will stop within a few generations. 5 G and the internet of things takes this one step further with very low frequencies that disrupts many bodily functions. The US military has been researching thi
