

Moir's Environmental Dialogues Archives Available
January 17th 2019: Greta and Svante Thunberg w Marten Thorslund talk Climate Crisis

Tune in

Archives Available on VoiceAmerica Variety Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

Swedish Climate Change Activist Greta Thunberg with Dad, Svante, and Marten Thorslund, We Don't Have Time spoke at UN Conference in Poland. Greta holds adults responsible for stealing the future of children to live in luxury. Svante tells of the changes his family had to make in response to the crisis. Marten tells of finding and interviewing Greta before the Parliament House with a black and white cardboard sign "School Strike for Climate." Rob Moir tells of their time together in Katowice presents their words on two panel presentations. Plus Greta's private talk to the UN Secretary.

DOWNLOAD PDF GET CODE

Featured Guests

Greta Thunberg

Late August fifteen-year-old Greta Thunberg went on school strike before the Parliament House in Stockholm Sweden. Her brave action and clear message in English inspired school students throughout the UK to go on strike demanding that people give up their luxuries and stop stealing future of children.

Read more

Svante Thunberg

Svante Thunberg is a Swedish actor and author who changed his family's lifestyle, doing away with all luxuries, once his daughter Greta made clear the climate crisis we are all facing.

Read more

Marten Thorslund

Marten Thorslund is Chief Sustainability Officer of We Don't Have Time. <https://wedonthavetime.org>

Read more

Share This Episode

Share On Facebook Share On Twitter Share On LinkedIn

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

Read what our hosts are writing about.

