The beautiful parts of life are sprinkled with love, challenge, fear, joy, and hopefully the appreciation for the insight we gain along the way. If your goal is to outrun pain or conflict you will never succeed. But, if you can learn to turn the tides and recognize the strength you have and the blessings all around you, you will in turn become more courageous, more alive, and fearless to face whatever is thrown your way. Through her own journey with cancer, Shandy Welch was given the opportunity to walk the walk, see medicine from the perspective of a patient, and became incredibly inspired a
