Good Grief with Cheryl Jones
Wednesday at 2 PM Pacific
May 1st 2019: Soft Landing

Gabrielle Jimenez never imagined she would find a calling as a hospice nurse. But when she got a job supporting a woman who was declining, she loved it. Struggling to finish the course work to become a nurse, her own soft landing came when she got a job in hospice. She felt privileged and lucky to be working with people in such a deep way. The time she was able to spend with people fed her soul. What did she learn about the end of life and how to sit with dying people? How has it impacted her own life? Join us to learn more.
