Featured Guest

Kenneth Kubernick

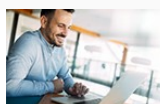

Kenneth Kubernick lives in Hollywood, CA and has spent a lifetime researching music history. A professional speaker on music history. Acclaimed authors and music journalists Harvey Kubernick and his brother Kenneth pay tribute to The Band on two special anniversaries: the debut of their first album, Music from Big Pink, 50 years ago, and the release of Martin Scorsese's film The Last Waltz, hailed as the greatest concert movie ever made, 40 years ago. This unofficial retrospective covers everything from their collaborations with Bob Dylan through that farewell show, which took place on Thanksgiving 1976. The Story of the Band features little-known and previously unpublished interviews with
