August 29th 2019: Addiction, Mental Health and Racial Isolation in Rural America

On this episode of We R H.O.P.E. Braking The Stigma Through Change we will be speaking with Wayne Miller. Not only does Wayne run The Center For Recovery but he also understand the correlation mental illness plays. Wayne is also a leader in racial equality. We will be breaking down Waynes project, Living Proof Mentoring. This organization supports youth of color in both Vermont and New Hampshire where a child of color may go years with our seeing anyone that looks like them in their community.
