Enoch Showunmi

Enoch Showunmi is the exception to all rules! Finding success on the pitch; playing for the likes of Leeds United, Luton Town, Bristol City, & Nigeria. He has 2 degrees in business admin & Finance, & he is a writer of poetry and prose. Enoch's foray into professional football is different to the norm. He completed a degree & was selected to come on trial at Luton Town, not more than a week later. Playing for expenses to prove himself for 8 months from July 2003 to Feb 2004, he signed his first professional contract after scoring a hat-trick against Brentford in a League One game. Enoch was named player of the month for League One in Feb 2004 & Jan 2007. He became player of the season a
