Working on Purpose New Episodes Weekly December 25th 2019: Christmas as an Everyday State of Mind

What if we lived every day of the year as if it were Christmas – and as if we were Santa Claus? What if we let ourselves be called into a higher state of being that embodied love, gratitude, and giving, every day – not just during the holidays? It's a good bet that not only would our own immediate life and well-being skyrocket to a higher level, but the ripple effect could literally cascade across the world. Christmas is a state of mind that is available to us all, no matter what religion we observe. Let it live on every day of the year and thread us together as a unified, grateful whole.

Santa Ronny & Mrs. Claus

Santa Ronny got his start when a woman in his church asked him to play Santa for an under privileged school in 2006. He knew immediately that he had found a way to plant seeds of encouragement into these children and soon thereafter it became a full-blown ministry - that's purpose!
