January 8th 2020: Mother Nature Calls her STEM Daughters

Mother Nature is calling her daughters, and Homeward Bound answers with a 10-year global leadership initiative, set against the backdrop of Antarctica. This initiative aims to heighten the influence and impact of women with a science background in order to influence policy and decision making as it shapes our planet. In this episode, Dr. Jeanette McConnell shares her 2019 experience alongside 99 other women from 33 different countries and takes us into the epic last three weeks of the program – in Antarctica.
