February 4th 2020: Encore Encore: Space
Robots

How much do we know about space robots? How have robots helped explore the galaxies? Are satellites, drone, rovers, landers and other spacecrafts, robots? How many robots have helped explore space? In our last show, we explored the question, robots, what do we know? Our discussion today will focus on robots in space. What can we expect? In our last show on robots, we concluded, that robots are here to stay. On Today, Tomorrow's Technologies (T3) program, my guest, Hawks Abbott will continue to discuss the various challenges how robots are helping to explore the galaxies side by side
