February 07th 2020: Bouncing Back with N. John Shore Jr.

N. John Shore writes, "When love enters your life, everything changes. When love leaves your life, nothing does. Love flies away today and tomorrow you're exactly where you were before it left...relentlessly and inexplicably, life without love continues," (p. 33, Everywhere She's not, 2019, Laughing Moon Books). And what of our ability to separate ourselves from the reality that doesn't change? To dissociate from the tough emotions? And to distance ourselves from pain? We compartmentalize but then something happens to breaks us apart and reassemble ourselves again. Take the trip from com

Featured Guest

N. John Shore, Jr.

John Shore is author of the weekly, real-time serial novel, Ashes to Asheville published online by the Asheville Citizen-Times newspaper, for which he also writes a popular advice column, A Shore Thing. He has edited and ghostwritten several fiction and non-fiction bestsellers and his former blog received 300,000 + visitors per month. He disbanded it to focus on novel-writing. We'll hear about his process. Everywhere She's Not is his first traditionally written novel.
