Out of the Comfort Zone
Friday at 11 AM Pacific
February 21st 2020: Through Your Own Lens with Amy Steindler and Andrea Howe

Engaging your whole brain is a good strategy particularly when you can gain a different perspective in doing so. New metaphors, new angles and new experiences give leaders a different lens on the path ahead. Tune in to hear about a new methodology and the experiences of one executive using that methodology.

Andrea Howe

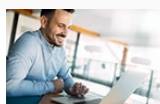

Andrea P. Howe is the co-author, with Charles H. Green, of The Trusted Advisor Fieldbook: A Comprehensive Toolkit for Leading with Trust. She is also the founder of The Get Real Project and a Principal with Trusted Advisor Associates. Andrea is a recovering information technology consultant who has spent more than 25 years working with clients, managing projects, and facilitating groups of all kinds and sizes. In 2006 she got laser-focused on the subject of trust at work—specifically, what it takes to create exceptional relationships that are both distinctive and lasting. Andrea has since worked with executive leaders and teams in U.S., Canada, Mexico, Brazil, Norway, Finland, Denmark,
