March 20th 2020: Overcoming Life Challenges with Love

Tune in

Friday at 9 AM Pacific Time on VoiceAmerica Empowerment Channel

We either live in love or fear according to the Course in Miracles. Love is not something we have to attain, chase after, or try to conjure up. It's what we are at our core. We just have to remove everything that is not in alignment with our True Nature/Love. We are here to learn to love, not just to be loved as the ego desires. You have to become an expression of Love. Changing our default from the ego to love is what the spiritual path is all about. Each moment, we have to be very observant and diligent about what we give our attention and awareness. The practice of giving love changes your I

Featured Guest

Anita C. Stewart

Anita Stewart, RN. has been gifted to work in healing her whole life. Earnest tending to those injured was first experienced through her compassionate, gentle caring of animals as a child. She went on to earn her nursing degree, with high level hospital nursing as her career for 40 years. Her own debilitating injury initiated a series of events that naturally led her to expand her abilities to help others physically, emotionally and spiritually, not through her own knowledge and power, but through surrender to a power greater than her own. Energy healing, at times and for some, is unexplainable in words but seen in the transformed lives of those through whom Anita provides specialized care.
