Erin Joy

A third-generation female entrepreneur, Erin Joy understands the rewards and challenges of starting a company and fueling its success. She has made it her life's mission to provide female business owners with the resources, services, and support they need to be successful in business and life. After 15 years spent selling and consulting in the real estate industry, Erin founded Black Dress Circle® in 2011 to help guide businesses in all sectors facing a variety of challenges—from under performance to fast, unexpected growth. Erin's consulting and executive coaching services have improved the productivity, efficiency, and profitability of organizations across many industries. Black Dress Circ
