March 25th 2020: Corona Virus and Cancer

In these difficult times, as we watch the news daily on the Corona Virus, how do we sort out fact from fiction, and keep ourselves and our loved ones, especially those battling cancer, safe. Join our guest, Patrick Quillin PhD, as we discuss this topic in dept, including: What is a virus? How did this corona virus get started? What is the prognosis for Americans and the corona virus? What is the prognosis for cancer patients and the corona virus? How can we protect ourselves from this virus? We will also talk about the immune system.
