May 13th 2020: College Is A Learning AND Living Community, But What Now?

College has always been a learning AND LIVING community. Students go to class, meet for lunch, and live with roommates. But today, in the midst of COVID 19, we are doing traditional college in a non-traditional format. Students now live and learn from their couch or bedroom in the home they grew up in. Our guest today, Stuart Nachbar, is an independent college admissions advisor based and publisher of EducatedQuest.com. Today we talk about colleges as a urban community, an organization of humans, and a network of alumni. Stuart speaks candidly about the questions colleges are asking now
