May 14th 2020: What Makes a Person Vulnerable to Exploitation?

Million Kids has spent over ten years working with teens and parents who end up being exploited by an online predator or become victims of sex trafficking because they trusted the wrong person. Our team has often discussed the issue of what makes one person more susceptible to being violated or exploited than another. This show will explore the many factors related to vulnerability. The number one factor is the belief that you are "damaged goods." We will explore the difference between "failing" and "being flawed." Very often it is the desire to "fit in" to be accepted and sometimes it has t
