

The Money Answers Show
Monday at 12 Noon Pacific
June 29th 2020: Financial Equity, Small Business Funding

Why is race such a big issue and how have economics, policy and finance contributed to our current situation? What can be done to establish real equity and to sustain it? What role can business play in establishing economic inclusion for African Americans? Do quotas really work? Why hasn't affirmative action efforts been more successful? Who needs to lead the charge to eliminate systemic racism? Is that something that needs to happen on the Federal or the State level – or both? How have past efforts to improve economic disenfranchisement been undercut or made powerless? Jordan Goodman, host o

David Rixter

David Rixter, founder and CEO of One United Global and HCR Consulting LLC focuses his efforts to impact small businesses and marginalized communities to prepare them for the 4th Industrial Revolution. In February 2020, David organized the Small Business Resilience Network, a group of state economic development practitioners to discuss the impact COVID-19 has on SMBs. An outcome from these discussions is to develop a FinTech Platform to identify flexible capital sources, foster peer-to-peer collaboration and inclusive entrepreneurship. Prior to One United Globe, David managed a $500MM national portfolio for the U.S. Department of Treasury's State Small Business Credit Initiative (SSBCI). Davi
