August 2nd 2020: Let it Go, Let it Flow Leadership

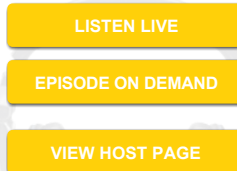

The root of conflict and distress starts with failed leadership. Recent high school graduate and host Siri Phaneendra was awarded UC Berkeley's Leadership Award and became an Alumni Scholar at the Cal Alumni Association. She talks about her leadership roles as a teen and then interviews Joan Ramirez, author of Let it Go, Let it Flow Leadership. Joan states that the most important virtue for a leader is humility. Learn from mistakes. Her book will give those in search of leadership positions an insight into people who've earned their stripes. It will also teach them the most important step in mo
