August 20th 2020: Encore Helping Adults Caring for Children Who Have Faced Trauma

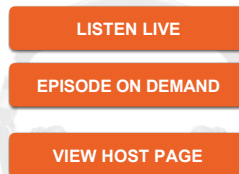

As we struggle with the challenge of safely sending children back to school, weighing concern for their social needs while moderating our own anxiety, this episode becomes relevant and important. Sue Badeau, nationally known speaker, writer and consultant for traumatized children brings her perspective of helping children by helping those who care for them. As mother of 22 children with years of expertise with child welfare, the juvenile justice systems, the Council on Adoptable Children, the National and The Child Traumatic Stress Network, she knows the dynamics personally and professionally
